Women's Ed-Venture

Challenge by Choice!

Every woman has unique issues and struggles, but most importantly, unique strengths. We recognize that women have an instinctive ability to demonstrate an inclusive, teambuilding style of problem-solving and decision-making. Our staff is uniquely qualified to identify and build upon these teambuilding skills to help you be even more insightful, adaptive, and successful using cooperation and problem solving techniques. This 3 hour workshop is designed to reinforce what you are doing right, give you a chance to try something new in a safe environment, and give you the confidence to use these problem-solving skills effectively in your personal and work life.

Facilitated by women, for women!
