(Please note: all communications about this attestation will ONLY be sent to your student email address.)

On or after December 27, 2020, have you incurred expenses related to either (or both) of the following?

- Any component of your cost of attendance (COA) at BTC.
- Emergency costs that arose due to the Coronavirus, such as, but not limited to, tuition, food, housing, health care, mental health care, or child care.

Are you a U.S. Citizen, or an Eligible Non-Citizen* who is not prohibited under the Personal Responsibility and work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 from receiving federal public benefits?

*Generally, you are an eligible noncitizen if you are (1) a permanent U.S. resident with a Permanent Resident Card (I-551); (2) a conditional permanent resident with a Conditional Green Card (I-551C); (3) the holder of an Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) from the Department of Homeland Security showing any one of the following designations: "Refugee," "Asylum Granted," "Parolee" (I-94 confirms that you were paroled for a minimum of one year and status has not expired), T-Visa holder (T-1, T-2, T-3, etc.) or "Cuban-Haitian Entrant;" or (4) the holder of a valid certification or eligibility letter from the Department of Health and Human Services showing a designation of "Victim of human trafficking."

If it is determined that you are eligible to receive a HEERF II emergency grant, how would you like your disbursement to be processed? You may choose to (a) have it issued directly to you in the form of a check or direct deposit, or (b) applied to your BTC account to pay for any outstanding charges you incurred during the COVID-19 national emergency. After your outstanding charges have been paid, any remaining grant funds, if any, will be disbursed to you in the form of a check or direct deposit.

By submitting this attestation, you certify that the information you have provided in this attestation is complete, truthful, and accurate. You understand Blackhawk Technical College has the authority to verify any information reported on this application for accuracy.
